

Team SPIRIT Trivia – Summer BONUS QUESTION

While World War II was still being fought, the Department of Labor estimated that, after the war, 15 million men and women who had been serving in the armed services would be unemployed. To reduce the possibility of postwar depression brought on by widespread unemployment, the National Resources Planning Board, a White House agency, studied postwar manpower needs as early as 1942 and in June 1943 recommended a series of programs for education and training.

Q: On 22 June 1944, FDR signed the “Servicemen’s Readjustment Act of 1944”, which was later known as _____?
